TASTING	„The 2015 Westhofen Spätburgunder Trocken delivers more intense (cherry) fruit as well as toasty and spicy aromas on the nose than the generic Spätburgunder. Medium to full-bodied with dense, round and intense fruit, this is a juicy, elegant, aromatic Pinot Noir with some toasty flavors on the finish.“ – Stephan Reinhardt for Robert Parker "Dried vegetal and earthy nose, red berries and some black berries, hint of smoke, clear, fairly firm, juicy fruit, nutty, slightly dried vegetal notes, tobacco, some more delicate smoky notes, fine, youthful tannins and some acid bite, in the background salt, good persistence, roasted nuances, a touch of bacon, good to very good, again fairly firm finish." - Wine Plus
RATINGS	87 Pts. - Robert Parker the Wine Advocate
