TASTING	"The tannin structure, chalky minerality and intense, herbal character make this a very serious dry riesling. It's already showing some fine apricots in the nose. Give it time and a lot more will emerge. Drink in 2019." - Stuart Pigott für James Suckling "In the nose clear fruit: white peach, grapefruit, with mint, on the palate again a lot of fruit, but less present, overall rather moderate weight, the acid is well integrated, the finale harmonious, pleasure." - falstaff "The 2017 Kirchspiel Riesling is pure, fresh and flinty on the stony nose. On the palate, this is a rich and concentrated, very juicy and persistent dry Riesling with a juicy but fine and salty, mineral finish. Tasted at the domaine in March 2020." - Stephahn Reinhardt for Robert Parker
